2nd Annual WV Deaf Awareness Day Held at the WV State Capitol

By John Burdette

Second Annual Deaf Awareness Day was held at the WV State Capitol, Charleston, WV, on March 13, 2017.

The event was hosted by the WV Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (WVCDHH) and WV Association of the Deaf (WVAD). A lot more people came to Deaf Awareness

Day this year and we had around 20+ vendors.

Delegate Ruth Rowan of R-Hampshire County representing the House of Delegates proclaimed and recognized WV Deaf Awareness Day. Earnest Covington III, WVCDHH Executive Director; Dr. Martin Keller, Jr., Superintendent of WV Schools for the Deaf and the Blind; and me, as President of WV Association of the Deaf, each received a Legislative Citation Award.

Afterwards, The WVSDB Tapestry and Melodies sang songs on the Upper Rotunda. They also went to the Office of the Governor and sang for the Governor in the afternoon. 🐼

House Delegate Ruth Rowan (R-Hampshire) presents WVCDHH Executive Director Earnest Covington, WV Schools for the Deaf and the Blind Superintendent Dr. Martin Keller, Jr., and WVAD President John Burdette "Legislative Citation Award" Award, that proclaims and recognizes Deaf Awareness Day.

Spring is here!

I hope everyone enjoyed the "Spring-Like" weather during the winter season. I am sure many of you are happy not to have much snow this time of the year.

The WVAD Board met at Hampton Inn hotel in Bridgeport, WV, for board meeting on February 25th. WVAD's Executive Board will be attending the Family School Association (FSA) weekend at WVSD in Romney, WV (see announcement on page 5), and we will have our next board meeting on WVSD campus on Sunday, May 21, 2017.

Once again, Zachary Stump, WVSD student, has been accepted to attend the 2017 National Jr. NAD Youth Leadership Camp (YLC) this summer from July 17 to August 12, 2017.

WVAD is having fundraising projects with Yankee Candle, That's My Pan, and raffles for WVU football tickets. If anyone is interested in shopping for bakewares, candles, popcorns, flowers, etc., please see one of the WVAD board members. It would be a great gift for Mother's Day, wedding, anniversary, birthday, etc.

I want to update everyone on projects or things that have been happening in West Virginia.

- The House Bill 2571 on Language Equality Acquisition for the Deaf Kids – Kindergarten Ready (LEAD-K) for WV was introduced in the House on February 20, 2017. The bill was passed in the House on March 10, 2017. It went over to Senate and was introduced in Senate on March 11, 2017. Last action was to Senate Education Committee. They sent this bill over for a study resolution this summer. WVAD's LEAD-K team will be continuing to work on this bill. 2017 Legislative Session is over. (See story on page 14.)
- West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and Blind will be hosting Second Annual Family School Association on Saturday, May 20, 2017. ### Vice-President Tami Deem's Report:

None.

Secretary Donna Williams' Report:

- Discussed with President John Burdette where to have the next WVAD board meeting. I suggested the Clarksburg/Bridgeport area. He liked that idea. Called about 10 hotels. Two were $150 plus tax. Others either had no conference room, did not answer, or there was no local number listed on the internet. The Hampton Inn, here, was the cheapest at $80 for 4+ hours and included water and coffee. Plus, can bring food in. Remember Days Hotel in Flatwoods does not permit outside food brought in. Veronda agreed and reservations were made.

- Announced this is my last term as WVAD Secretary. Wanted to let everyone know so can start looking for someone to take my place. If anyone is interested in running for Secretary to take my place, let me know and I will help train that person. If LEAD-K fails, I will continue to work on that committee if want me to. Enjoy working with WVAD and will help with any committee if I can but need to take care of my health.

No report.

Education Advocate April Hottle's Report:

Donna gave the report for April.

April has been very busy going to the Capitol almost every day during her lunch break meeting the delegates asking them to support this bill. Plus she is busy preparing to leave tomorrow for Atlanta to attend the EHDI Conference. So, I offered to do the report for her.

- The LEAD-K bill has been introduced to the House as HB 2571. And, it was sent to the Education Committee. Bills never have a title so it can be confusing what each bill is about.
- Delegate Ruth Rowan did a great job getting 10 other delegates to sponsor this bill.
- Donna did a PowerPoint presentation at the WVCDHH board meeting in Romney on Friday, March 3.
- Donna also attended the Fair Shake weekly Wednesday meeting at the Capitol on Wednesday, March 22, to explain to them about this bill. Fair Shake is our lobbyist and will watch the bill progress for us and let John and me know if they hear anything.
- We work very closely with the core team in California. Everything we send out must go through them first.

Veronda shared the e-mail she sent to Del. Nancy Foster and Del. Foster's response. She gave us permission to use the same words.

Fundraising Veronda Harrison's Report:

LEAD-K

LANGUAGE EQUALITY & ACQUISITION  DEAF KIDS

By Donna M. Williams

LEAD-K means "Language Equality and Acquisition for Deaf Kids." The goal of this law is for all babies diagnosed deaf or hard of hearing to start learning language, have their language evaluated often using milestones, monitored, and data reported from birth to age five (5) in either English, ASL, or both. The goal is for all deaf and hard of hearing children to be ready to learn when enter kindergarten. This will lead the children to be successful in school and life.

So many deaf and hard of hearing children enter school with no language and cannot communicate. The best time for children to learn language is from birth to age three (3).

There are only three states with this law: California, Kansas, and Hawaii.

The WVAD LEAD-K Team worked hard to draft a bill to propose to WV Legislators. The bill number was HB 2571. Delegate Ruth Rowan, from Romney, got 10 delegates to sponsor this bill and proposed it to the House Education Committee. The WV Department of Education requested to be removed from the bill and have only Birth to Three and WV Schools for the Deaf and the Blind responsible. I recently learned they want to work with us. It seems they completely misunderstood the bill. So, we need to work with them and clarify the bill.

The bill passed the House with no opposition and was sent to the Senate. The Senate sent it to the Senate Education Committee. The members of the Senate Education Committee had many questions. Also, there were two groups that strongly opposed the bill. Therefore, the bill failed.

It will go for a study resolution this summer. That means a group of legislators will study the bill, call some witnesses to come, and help improve the bill. In the meantime, the WV LEAD-K

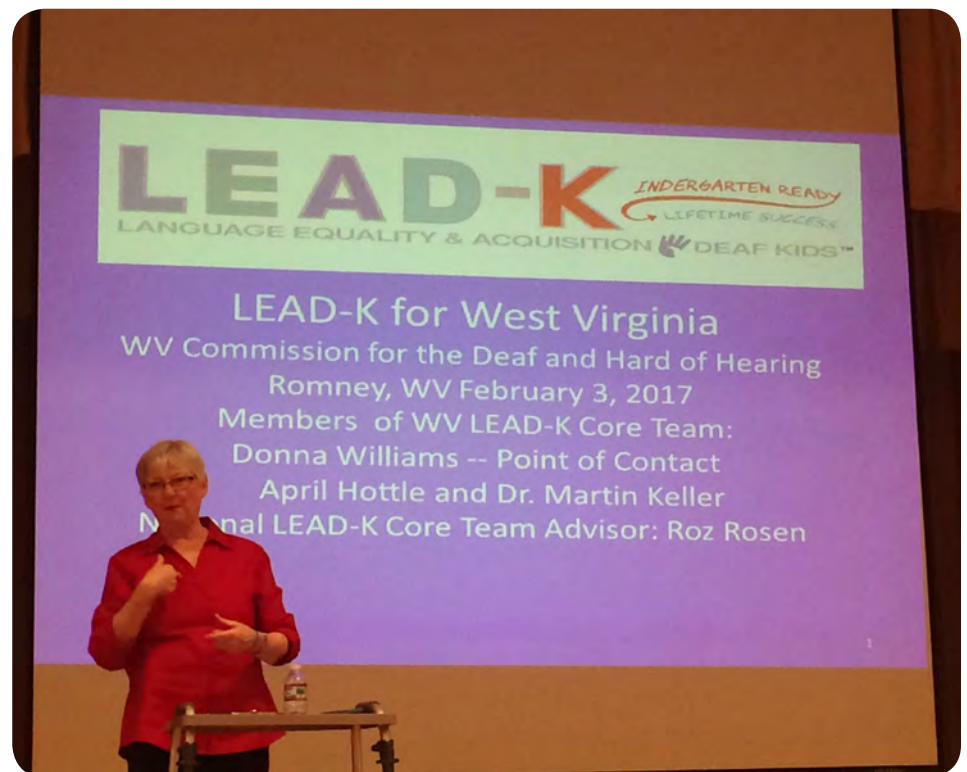

Team will continue to work on the bill, go to Deaf events to talk about the bill, meet with legislators, and attend a training in Richmond, VA with one of the national LEAD-K members with Virginia Association of the Deaf.

April Hottle, Antonia (Toni) Vaughan, and Brenda Hall went to the Capitol almost every day for the past 2 weeks. (April went almost everyday since legislative session started in February.) We are so blessed to have them on our Team. Twice a group from the Deaf community went to the Capitol to talk with the Senate Education Committee, but did not have a chance.

Thanks to all those who sent e-mails and called the legislators. We are NOT giving up. We will take a short break and then meet again soon to plan for the next year.

The WV LEAD-K Team is looking for more volunteers to serve on the team. We need people who have reliable transportation to be able to attend meetings and go to the Capitol, be able to go to Deaf events to raise awareness and the purpose of the bill, meet with the legislators this summer and fall to push and discuss with them about the LEAD-K bill. If anyone is interested in joining the WV LEAD-K Team, or have any questions please contact Donna Williams at dmwilliams49@yahoo.com.

KEITH HAMILTON

A man of infinite patience. A man, who of necessity, learned to communicate with the deaf at an early age, a man whose talking hands spell understanding and trust and hope for those who cannot hear. A soft spoken Christian whose philosophy is that there is no limit to the good that can be done.

Keith C. Hamilton Jr., 95, passed away after short illness March 24, 2017. He was preceded in death by his parents, Keith Sr. and Demaris, who were deaf, and his loving wife of 48 years, Mary W. Hamilton.

Surviving son, Lawrence Hamilton (Lynne), grandson and caregiver for the last three years, Joshua Hamilton (Tiffany); great-granddaughter, Kamryn.

Keith, with the help of the West Side Kiwanis Club, were successful in convincing WCHS-TV to allow him air time for a program for the deaf, named "Talking Hands." This was in the early 60's. He served the Charleston area by teaching sign language classes, helping in weddings, funerals, court proceedings, emergency room visits, all at no charge. Keith worked for 19 years at WV Vocational Rehab with job placement for the deaf. He was a member of Kings Way Christian Church, Nitro.

Service was at 1:00 p.m., March 31, 2017, at Good Shepherd Mortuary, South Charleston with Gene Brooks, minister at Kings Way Church, officiating. Burial was at Sunset Memorial Park, South Charleston. The family received friends from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., Thursday, at the mortuary.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Deaf Missions, 21199 Greenview Rd., Council Bluffs, IA 51503 or Kings Way Christian Church, P.O. Box 307, Nitro, WV 25143. 🕊️

CHICKEN ALFREDO ROLL-UPS

(Yield: 4 Servings; Prep Time: 15 minutes; Cook Time: 30 minutes)

3 Tablespoons butter (plus more greasing the dish)

Juice of 1 lemon

2 garlic cloves, minced

2 cups shredded rotisserie chicken

8 cooked lasagna noodles

Freshly ground black pepper

3 Tablespoons flour

2-1/4 cups milk (preferably 2% or whole)

2 teaspoons chopped parsley

2 Tablespoons cream cheese, softened

1/2 cup finely grated Parmesan

Kosher salt

1. Preheat oven to 350 °F. Butter a large casserole dish and set aside.
2. Melt butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Add garlic and sauté until garlic is fragrant, about 30 seconds. Whisk the flour into the butter and garlic and cook until the mixture is bubbling and golden, 1 minute more. Gradually pour in milk, whisking constantly. Bring mixture to a simmer, then stir in cream cheese and Parmesan. Let simmer until the sauce thickens, about 2 to 3 minutes. Add lemon juice and about 1 teaspoon of parsley. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Then stir in shredded chicken.
3. Spoon a thin layer of sauce onto the bottom of the baking dish.
4. Lay cooked noodles in a single layer on a cutting board or baking sheet. Spread chicken Alfredo mixture on each noodle, then roll up the lasagna noodle. Lay the roll-ups in the baking dish seam side-down. Spoon more sauce on top of the roll-ups.
5. Bake for 15-20 minutes, until the sauce is bubbly and beginning to brown. Garnish with more parsley and serve warm.

PARMESAN LEMON CRUSTED FLOUNDER WITH GREEN BEANS AMANDINE

(Yield: 4 Servings; Prep Time: 10 minutes; Cook Time: 20 minutes)

With lean protein (flounder) and veggies (green beans), all you need to do is add brown rice to 1/4 of your plate, and this meal easily reflects the diabetes plate. See more at <http://www.diabetes.org/mfa-recipes/recipes/2015-03-parmesan-lemon-crust.html>.

Cooking spray

1/2 cup panko breadcrumbs

2 tsp olive oil

1/4 cup grated parmesan cheese

1 egg white

1 lb fresh green beans, trimmed and cut in half

2 Tbsp lemon juice (use from juiced lemon above)

8 cups water

1 lemon, zested and juiced (juice divided)

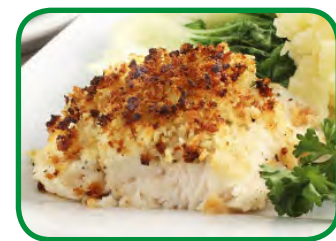

2 cloves garlic, minced or grated

4 (4 oz) frozen flounder filets (do not thaw)

1 Tbsp trans-fat-free margarine

1 clove garlic, minced or grated

1/4 cup slivered almonds

1. Preheat oven to 375 °F. Coat a baking sheet with cooking spray and set it aside. Add 8 cups of water to a large soup pot over high heat and bring to a boil.
2. In a small bowl, combine the panko, lemon zest, grated parmesan cheese, olive oil, and garlic. Mix until the panko is coated with the olive oil.
3. Lay the fish filets on the prepared baking sheet and brush each filet with egg whites. Coat the top of each filet with 2 Tablespoons of panko mixture and press it in to the fish. Drizzle with 2 Tablespoons of the lemon juice. Spray the top of each fish with cooking spray.
4. Bake for 20 minutes.
5. While the fish is baking, par cook (blanch) the green beans in boiling water for 2 minutes. Drain and set aside.
